LOVERS JUMPED TO DEATH.

Locked in Each Other's Arms, They Leap Over a Precipice.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 27.- About three onths ago Carl French, a wealthy round nan from Indianapolis, arrived at Bor Air, a mountain summer resort. There he met and fell desperately in love with Miss Helen Hunt, the daughter of Allen A secret marriage was arranged, but French's father learned of it and came Fast to take his son home.

Late Wednesday evening the lovers met and went out to Sunset Park, closely catched by Mr. French, who followed

ati, Aug 27.-Assistant Pros sutor Darby has decided a peculiar case. The Obio-Indiana State line splits the center of the village of Harrison. In a case of assault and battery the parties stood near the State line. Both were in othor when the victim was thrown so that be lay across the dividing line. The ag-gressor jumped into Indiana and severely kicked that portion of his antagonist which was in the Hoosier State. Darby said either State could punish under the circumstances, but Indiana will probably gethe case, as the Ohio push was harmless, but the ensuing Indiana kick was injurious
